

Dvorine Color Vision Test

The Dvorine quickly detects the type and severity of color blindness when the ability to distinguish colors is important.

Detect color blindness
by using Pseudo-Isochromatic Plates

Dvorine Features and Benefits

- ▶ Approved and recommended by the FAA
- ▶ Provides two useful color identification subtests: Nomenclature and Color Discrimination Test
- ▶ Pseudoisochromatic plates feature a number or pattern of colored dots

Who is it for?

Employees whose job requires the need to distinguish color. Good color vision is vital to the success and safety in many occupations. Some examples of these occupations are:

Assembly
Manufacturing Electric
Optometry
Military

Mechanical Maintenance
Laboratory Work
Design Aviation

Administration

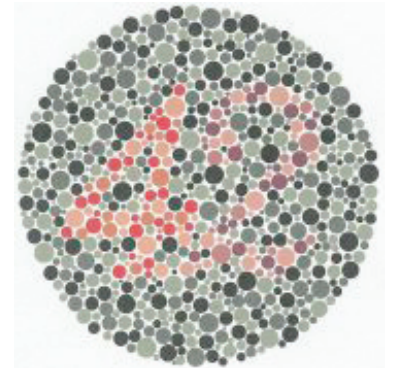

2 minutes, Individual
Plates with Binder
Paper Only

Applications

Applicant Screening

Results

Determine if there is a color deficiency

Sample of Pseudiosochromatic Plate